Vineyard football played their final season game against Nantucket in the 39th annual Island Cup. Fans and players took the 7:30 a.m. boat across for a 1:30 p.m. kickoff. Both teams fought hard, but the Vineyard lost 48-7 with the only touchdown being scored by Braden Sayles after a 10-yard pass from Ivan Shepherd. A huge congratulations to the seniors on their last game!

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE MVRHS CROSS COUNTRY TEAMS!

MVRHS Cross Country boys and girls teams went through the entire season undefeated in the new Cape and Islands league and we are awaiting word on how they fared today in the All State Finals at Westfield State!

Notes from the MV Times and Head Coach Joe Schroeder:

“ Eighth grader Adrienne Christy led the Vineyard girls with an overall seventh-place finish (19:55.1). Junior Catherine Cherry overcame back issues for a gritty finish of 14th in the field of 155 runners in her division. Yayla DeChiara (20), Eloise Christy (21), and Amber Cuthbert (25), Kailyn Freeman (116), and Margaret Sykes (117) completed the Vineyarder record-setting performance in the wind and cold at the Wrentham Developmental complex.” - Mvtimes.com
“We’ve never had an EMass championship in school history until today.” - Joe Schroeder
