MVRHS DECA presents a Summer Job Fair!

When: Tuesday April 30th 9A-11A

Where: Culinary Dining Room & Hallway

What: Fifteen (15) local businesses will be on campus looking to hire students for full and part time summer help. Opportunities from banks to summer camps, retail to lifeguarding and landscaping, and everything in between, all looking to hire now!*

Students interested in getting hired first and standing out from the crowd should book a Flex with Mr. Jakusik THIS WEEK to develop an elevator pitch and/or develop a resume!

Businesses interested in participating in the Summer Job Fair should contact Mr. Jakusik at 508.735.5500 or bjakusik@mvyps.org. There are still a few spaces remaining.

Mass Humanities has awarded Martha's Vineyard Regional High School a grant for Cross-Cultural Perceptions vs. Reality. This is a project engaging the student body and general public in conversations with people around the world via video conferencing, about the experiences of immigrants and refugees. Students will have opportunities to participate during the school day on April 23rd and 24th. Check out more info/scheduling here!

Shout Out to Project Vine for pulling off their 3rd annual "Cornament" on April 11th.

After building, designing & painting boards, (and new this year, a mini-golf hole-in-one challenge) students, staff & families used the sets in a tournament and auctioned them off to raise money for the program.

A big congrats to Junior Henry Warner & his dad for winning the overall tournament and taking home a set of beautiful "Shark Bite" boards, designed and painted by fellow Junior, Davin Tackabury.

Another big shout out to student artists Carina Cataloni, Zoe Ingargiola, Maddie Youmans and Eleanor Hyland for taking the lead on board designs, to Shawn Schofield, Ellen Muir and Joel Graves for giving up their weekends to build boards and to the staff and students who came out to the event to support our program. We hope to see you all next year!

The first MVRHS May Cup is on!

Teams of 4 will be competing against each other starting on May 2 and May 3 with seeding rounds.

Play will resume the following Tuesday and Thursday (May 7 and May 9) and the finals will occur on May 14 and May 16. Each team can have only one varsity player and each player must be from a different grade.
