

Health Assisting

An ideal program for any student interested in entering the growing field of health care. Students receive instruction in anatomy and physiology, growth and development, medical terminology, aging and Alzheimer's Care, infectious diseases, mental health, and nutrition.

Program Features:

- Clinical experience at local nursing and rehabilitation facilities.
- In-school health fairs
- Guest Speakers from local Emergency Services

Certifications

- OSHA 10 Hour Health Assisting
- American Red Cross PLS CPR
- Certified Nurse Aide
- Home Health Aide
- Alzheimer's and Dementia Sensitivity Training
- Mental Health Support Aide

Career Pathways - Health Assisting

Direct entry into Workforce

- Certified Nursing Assistant
- Dietary Aide
- Home Health Aide
- Entry into Practical Nursing Program

Post-Secondary Associates Degree, Certificates and Licensure

- EMT/Paramedic
- EKG Technician
- X-Ray Technician
- Medical Assistant
- Pharmacy Technician
- Surgical Technician
- Physical Therapy
- Diagnostic Sonographers

4-Year Degree

- Registered Nurse
- Occupational Therapist
- Speech Therapist
- Dietician
- Athletic Trainers
- Physician's Assistant

Career Outlook

Job growth expected to increase by 10% over the next 7 years.